

Professional Coaching Skills DUBAI

If you are looking to become a great coach or to consolidate your coaching skills and have global recognition for your achievement; this is the course for you.

Invest in this programme to gain an accredited coaching qualification from Association for Coaching and part 1 of the International Coach Federation Accredited Coach Training Programme (ACTP) as well as a separate certification in use of the Extended DISC psychometric tool.

Completion of this course equips you with the tools and capabilities to coach at the highest levels within organisations with an understanding and practical application of executive coaching, creative coaching techniques, and psychometrics. The course develops your interpersonal skills enabling you to become an effective coach and counts as the 60 hours coach specific training required for coach regulation from 2013.

During the certificate programme you will:

- Be continually observed and assessed while coaching by peers and experienced coaches using the ICF competences.
- Observe and assess peers in their coaching and use coaching to aid the planning and development of a personal learning programme.

Our methodology:

- We use double loop learning to ensure you learn about yourself, as well as the skills, knowledge and understanding you need to be the best coach you can be.
- We are interactive with demonstrations and practice as well as knowledge input.
- We create an informal and relaxed yet challenging environment.
- We move from knowledge sharing and input, to experiential and interactive sessions through the week.
- We help you to solicit and generate high quality feedback.
- We create space for group discussion and sharing interests.
- We work with cross cultural examples.
- We tell real life stories about our own experiences in coaching.
- We find opportunities to play with the creative coaching tools.
- We develop 'safe' coaches who work with integrity.
- We walk our talk.
- We have FUN
